

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., MARCH 22, 1883.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

A BUSY man is on his rounds,
And at your house will call
For just precisely what you'll know,
Some time the coming fall.
He is a smooth, mild-mannered chap,
The same to great and lesser,
And this man is, to make it short,
That awful Tax Assessor.

The advance of the Pittsburg coal fleet passed down yesterday.

THERE will be preaching in the Presbyterian church this evening and to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

MESSRS. W. W. BALDWIN & Co. on Wednesday, shipped a car load of mules to the East to M. Kindig.

THE United States light house tender Lily was at Ripley yesterday to distribute a part of the New York Herald relief fund.

SOL. SMITH RUSSELL, the renowned comedian, will give an entertainment at the Opera House, April 9th, at which time his great play, "Edgewood Folks," will be presented, and with it all of his famous specialties. Don't forget the date.

MR. S. B. LYONS has offered another reward of two hundred dollars for the apprehension of "Col." Crawford who killed Pent Lyons some time ago. It is said that Crawford was recently seen in the vicinity of his home in Lewis county.

THE Right Rev. T. U. Dudley, Assistant Bishop of Kentucky, will be in Maysville, on the 22nd of April (fourth Sunday after Easter) for the purpose of conducting confirmation services at the Church of the Nativity. While in Maysville the Bishop will be the guest of Mrs. Gray.

MR. M. C. HUTCHINS, attorney for Mrs. Susanah D. Nolin, has succeeded in obtaining for that estimable lady, a pension for life at the rate of $8 a month, beginning March 9th, 1878. Her husband, the late Thomas D. Nolin was a soldier of the war of 1812. The first payment made to Mrs. Nolin will be nearly $500.

THE attention of the Health Committee is called to the mass of decaying grain in the cellars of the wrecked buildings at the corner of Second and Wall streets. The odors from it are very offensive and are much complained of by the people who live in that neighborhood. The cause of it all should be removed immediately.

A FEATURE of the wedding ceremony last night that was very interesting was the part taken by little Jamie and Lottie Rogers, of Sharpsburg. They bore the two rings used on a salver and acquitted themselves of their important duties very handsomely. The bridesmaids were each presented by the bride with a handsome bracelet, which were clasped upon their arms by the bride herself.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Dr. H. Ebersole is in the city to-day. Mr. Milton Andrews, of Augusta is the guest of the family of Mr. M. C. Russell.

Misses Anna Miller and Anna Austin returned this morning from a visit to friends in Manchester, O.

Wedding Bells.

Miss Lillie B. Smith, daughter, of Mr. James Smith, one of our most respected citizens, was married on Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian Church to Mr. John D. Tash, of Philadelphia. The ceremony by the Rev. S. B. Alderson, a combination of the Presbyterian and Episcopalian, was very beautiful and impressive. The church was decorated with flowers, conspicuous among which were two beautiful lilies in full bloom, sent by a loving friend of the bride. The bride was very lovely and the groom as handsome and happy as a man ought to be on the great day of his life. The bride's costume was of India Mull and lace and very elegant and becoming.

The attendants were Miss Ella Tash, of Philadelphia; Miss Lulu Rogers, of Sharpsburg; Miss Mary Williams, of Mt. Sterling, a niece of Senator John S. Williams, and Miss Anna Stockton, of this city. The gentlemen attendants were Mr. Ed. Gage, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. George Hukill, of Cincinnati; Major W. H. Means and Mr. Sam. A. Smith, of this city. The bride received a great number of elegant and costly presents from her numerous friends.

Miss Smith was one of our most popular and charming ladies, whose removal from the city will be much regretted. Mr. and Mrs. Tash left the same evening for Washington City, after which they will go to their home at Philadelphia. The BULLETIN offers its congratulations and best wishes.

A Necessity of the Day.

Few minor inventions have been so readily appreciated and come so quickly into general use as the stylographic pen. None who have used one will ever be contented with any less convenient apparatus for writing, and in a short time there will be few who have occasion to write at all who have not adopted it. The general principle of the stylographic pen is so familiar as to require no explanation. We have made trial of various kinds, but have found none to equal the improved Livermore Stylographic Pen, which combines all the advantages of other makes. It is convenient to use, writes with any kind of good ink, and is practically indestructible. Sold at first for $3 each, the price has recently been reduced to $2 for plain pens, with fifty cents extra for gold mounted. By sending that amount to Louis E. Dunlap, Manager Stylographic Pen Company, 290 Washington street, Boston, a pen, together with a package of superior ink, will be sent by return mail, and the money will be at once refunded if they do not prove to be perfect in every respect.—Morning Mail, Lowell, Mass.

Fire.

This morning about 11 o'clock, a fire broke out in the third story of the brick building on Front street, near Limestone, belonging to Mrs. McDonald, but fortunately it was suppressed by the fire department before any very serious damage was done. The flames were first discovered in a room occupied by Mrs. Minton on the back part of the third floor. As the lady was absent and the door locked it is supposed the fire originated from a coal falling from the grate. The loss was inconsiderable but was fully insured in the London and Liverpool and Globe Company. Mrs. Minton lost nearly all of her furniture and other effects.

WHILE the Steamer Handy was lying at Vanceburg last Sunday Hewson Clay, a colored roustabout on the boat, slipped and fell into the river off the wharfboat and drowned before assistance could be rendered. He was playing with another boy at the time. Efforts were made to recover the body, but with no effect.

Sale of Rosa Wilkes.

A despatch from Atlanta, Ga., announces the sale of Rosa Wilkes in that city a day or so ago, by her owner W. T. Anderson, of Macon, to A. B. Winship, of Providence, R. I., for $11,000. It has been rumored several times that such a transfer had been made, but it has also turned out to be unfounded. The mare is one of the fastest in the country and last season gained a record of 2:18 1/4. She is by Geo. Wilkes. As will be remembered, Rosa and Monroe Chief trotted a great race at Lexington, in which she was beaten, although it is generally conceded that Budd Doble, who was behind the Chief, outgeneraled Cook, who drove the mare. It was a remarkable contest, and Monroe Chief won on the sixth heat. They had each secured two, and the fifth was declared a dead heat.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Rosa Wilkes, it will be remembered, won the purse in the 2:26 class at this place last May, in three straight heats, over London, Mamie, Una, St. Remo and Lady Brownell.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

As Easter approaches, society is on the qui vive discussing the wedding, which is on the tapis—concerning one of our most prominent brunettes; a report which is in circulation says, she to marry a handsome Chicagoan, a non-such.

What are we going to do about it, our town has so few eligible widowers. We hear that the most captivating one, is about to leave us and locate elsewhere.

It is said Mrs. Robert Brookover understands the art of entertaining, that the person who receives an invitation to one of her musical soirees is made supremely happy.

It is strange how our quiet little town, seems to attract some of the Maysvillians on a Sunday afternoon, it may be the quietness of our town, such subdues the Maysvillian's distracted brain.

Miss Tillie Small one of our most vivacious young ladies is now convalescent from her recent sickness, much to the delight of a certain young gentleman.

Distance lends enchantment has certainly been proven by the Maysville gentlemen. They have an appreciative ear for a high order of music.

Mr. Stephen Kimball, an esteemed citizen near Aberdeen, died on the 19th inst., at the age of forty years.

Our little town owing to the recent flood has presented as sad an appearance as the solemn occasion of Lent could require. But she will soon regain her former appearance of attractiveness, as the balmy spring advances.

Miss Emma Young has returned home after a visit of several months at St. Louis with relatives. Her many friends welcome her again in the their midst, as her bright superior mind lends a charm of surpassing attraction wherever her presence is known.

COUNTY POINTS.

GERMANTOWN.

The wheat is looking very bad in this section of the country.

The dirt roads which have been in such a bad condition this winter, are drying up very fast.

Our little town is getting quite religious. We have had preaching night and day for about two months. Another protracted meeting is to be commenced as soon as the one now in progress closes.

On last Thursday night a host of friends assembled at the residence of Mr. William Dickson near this place to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Anna Dickson to Mr. Charles Galbraith, of Bracken county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas E. Tiller, of the Brooksville Baptist Church, in the most elegant manner. After the nuptial knot was tied and the usual congratulations were extended the company was treated to an excellent "pass around" which received the compliments of all present. About nine o'clock the friends dispersed with their heartfelt thanks for their generous reception. The attendants were Miss Ella Golling, a charming and accomplished young lady of Maysville and Mr. Thomas Insico, of this community. The bride was clad in a costume of wine colored silk with satin trimmings in silver ornaments. She is quite an accomplished young lady whose amiability, virtue and kindness have won her many friends.

The groom is a young gentleman who by his honesty and uprightness has gained the esteem of all. On Friday morning the couple and attendants repaired to the residence of Mr. H. B. Galbraith where a number select friends were in waiting to receive them. An excellent dinner was spread, the table being almost crushed under its weight of turkey, chicken, cake &c., but was relieved of some of its burden in due time. The evening was one of enjoyment and will long be remembered by all who were present. That their lives may be full of sunshine is the best wishes of all.

HUMPHACK JOE.

THE President has appointed Hon. Geo. R. Sage to be United States Judge for the Southern District of Ohio.
